Speaking at the University of Toledo

Law Auditorium

Monday March 10 @ 7:00 p.m.

Ann Wright is a retired army colonel and a leading peace activist. She served in the U.S. Army for 13 years and in the U.S. Army Reserves for 16 years. She also worked with the Foreign Service of the US State Department, serving as Chief of Mission to the embassies of such countries as Afghanistan, Sierra Leone (for which she was awarded an Award of Heroism in 1997), Mongolia, and Uzbekistan. She will bring a well-experienced view of current US Foreign Policy to our community. There will also be copies of her book, Dissent: Voice of Conscience available for sale.
